Money and Business.

The advices from the East, yesterday, were of rather more cheering character. The Produce and Money markets both showed a slight improvement. There is, however, no prospect, as yet, of any permanent relief, and failures continue of daily occurrence.

Our Wheat market continues to droop. There were sales of Spring Wheat, yesterday, as low a 65@68 cents, though most of the lots brought 72. The Money Market is more stringent than we have ever known it here. Exchange on the East is not to be had, and all kinds of business are affected more or less unfavorably.

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT.

Judge Randall and Mr. Schurz at Market Hall.

Our candidates, Judge RANDALL and CARL SCHURZ, commenced their series of addresses last evening by speaking to one of the largest audiences ever assembled in the ample space of Market Hall.

Mr. SCHURZ is a capital speaker, a natural orator, and spoke for over an hour to his German fellow-citizens, in a calm, convincing manner, carrying home to their hearts and minds the truths of Republicanism, and exposing the sophistries of the adversaries.

He proved beyond a doubt, from the record, the identity of Democratic policy with Slavery extension—dwelt upon Mr. Buchanan's late proclamation of the Nationality of Slavery—spoke of the affairs of Kansas at length—made an admirable exposition of the doctrines of Republicanism. He referred in thrilling terms to the struggle for Emancipation in Missouri, where the Germans are mostly with us. He showed what were the doctrines of the Democratic party in this State in 1849, and how far they have departed from them.

He disposed effectually of the stale charge of Know-Nothingism brought against our party, fixing the stigma upon the Sham-Democracy.—He showed an intimate acquaintance with the history of our State politics, and after dwelling upon it at some length, closed with an appeal to the Germans, who in their Fatherland had united against oppression, not to stand here as the advocates and supports of Slavery, by following longer the Democratic leaders.

Judge RANDALL spoke very briefly after Mr. SCHURZ had closed. He alluded to the importance of the issues, State and National, which are now before the people, and to the corruptions which had crept into the local and general governments. He alluded, as reasons for the bitter hostility and mean personalities directed against himself, to his efforts in the Legislature to expose the thieving crew then in charge of the State affairs, and to block their operations generally. He promised to speak further on this subject to-night, and to give his calumniators something to talk about—and we do not doubt that he will do so in good earnest. He closed with a brief and eloquent allusion to the contest pending between Slavery and Freedom.

BYRON PAINE, Esq., presided at the meeting, which on opening, he addressed briefly in German, which he speaks fluently.

This evening Judge RANDALL will occupy the principal part, and Mr. SCHURZ will speak to our citizens in English.

Another Meeting To-night.

It has already been announced that Judge RANDALL and Senator DOOLITTLE were to speak to the electors at Market Hall to-night. We learned last evening that Mr. DOOLITTLE will be prevented from being present, and inasmuch as the Market Hall is otherwise engaged, the meeting will be held elsewhere; notice will be given during the day.

Mr. RANDALL will speak at length on the issues of the campaign, and will be followed by Mr. SCHURZ. The people are ready to hear, as was well testified by the meeting last night.

Republican Nominations.

In the Wyocena District, Columbia Co., J. W. EARL has been nominated for Assembly by the Republicans.

In Adams and Juneau counties, A. P. AYERS is the Republican candidate.

JOHN W. SHARP, of Cottage Grove, has been nominated for Assembly by the Republicans of his district in Dane county.

CALIFORNIA ELECTION.—Partial returns from twenty counties foot up for Governor as follows: Stanley, (Republican) 10,344, Weller, (Democrat) 13,490; Bowie, (American) 6,480. The vote in San Francisco was as follows: Stanley, 5,637; Weller, 4,430; Bowie, 260. The returns as far as received indicate that the proposition to pay the State debt has been carried, and that the movements for calling a convention to revise the State Constitution has been lost.

In San Francisco the majority for paying the debt was 2,413. The People's ticket led the Democratic ticket in that city by over 2,000 majority. It was supported by the Republicans.—The gallant STANLEY is defeated, but he runs far ahead of Bowie, K. N., and the Republican party is now full of hope, growing rapidly, and well organized. Last fall it was 16,000 votes behind the K. N.'s, and 32,000 behind the Democrats.

LAND SALES AT STEVENS POINT.—The Stevens Point Pinery of the 6th instant says:

The sale of the swamp lands for Portage county, came off here last Saturday, under the direction of Mr. Att'y Gen'l Smith, Mr. Treasurer Kuhen, and Dep. Sec'y Hunt. An immense number of persons were in attendance, and many of the tracts went at high prices. The gentlemen Commissioners conducted the sale to the general satisfaction of the purchasers.

We have not yet heard from the News how much our "Democratic" Commissioners have "swindled" the School Fund out of, by this sale.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT ON THE RIVER.

The Steamer "Ben Coursin" Sunk by the Queen City

10 OR 15 LIVES LOST.

By the passengers on the Northern Light, which arrived here this morning from St Paul, we learn of one of the most dreadful steamboat accidents which ever occurred on the Upper Mississippi—evidently showing a negligent or wanton criminality on the part of steamboatmen seldom equalled on any river.

The Galena Packet Key City, Capt. J. Worden, passed this place about half past 12 o'clock last night, bound up. When about eight miles above this city and near Dacotah, M. T., she met and ran into the steamer Ben Coursin, which was coming down, sinking the latter boat to her cabin deck in a very few moments. The accident occurred about 2 o'clock A. M., and of course the passengers were in their berths. We learn that from 10 to 15 persons, mostly passengers, were killed by the collision or drowned.—One of the saved reports 9 drowned that he knew of, though he could give no names. One family, consisting of a man, his wife, two daughters and two children, from St. Paul, were known to be on the Cour-in—and all, but the two children were drowned.

The water was very deep at the place of the accident, and the probability is that nearly all the passengers, if there were any, are drowned.

It is reported that the Key City continued on her way up the river, without stopping to render the least assistance to the sunken boat.

The Northern Light, coming down a few hours later, was prevailed upon to stop and take on board the passengers who were saved and a portion of the crew. The report that the "Light" charged them a dollar and a half fare to this city, we don't believe.

We have no knowledge of particulars that can palliate or excuse the recklessness and evident criminality on the part of the pilots—nor do we know upon which the responsibility rests, but there is criminal obstinacy or terrible negligence somewhere and we hope some authorities will make the attempt to investigate the matter.

The night was very light, the moon being nearly, if not quite, full, and not a mist of fog nor rain, and consequently we know of no excuse for the pilots.

The Ben. Coursin was a small stern wheel boat running between St. Louis and St. Paul. The Key City is owned by the Galena and Minnesota Packet Co., and runs between Dunleith and St. Paul.

We will give further particulars of this terrible and reckless slaughter of human life as soon as we get them.—La Crosse Republican (Extra) Oct. 4.

From the Tribune of Monday.

Finances in New York.

Financial matters looked a little brighter on Saturday than they have done of late. Fewer failures than usual were announced, heavy payments were paid with unexpected promptness, and the leading stocks sold at an advance from the depression of Friday. The drafts on the Sub-Treasury failed to arrive from Washington, but will come to hand to-day, and, with the treasure by the Star of the West, will supply the specie of which everybody continues to stand in need. On the other hand, the feeling of merchants is still gloomy, and their confidence in each other faint. The best paper is taken with reluctance.

The firms of Bowen, Fly & McConnell and of Gage, Sloan & Slater have suspended. The Powell Bank of Newburgh, the Windham Co. Bank of Connecticut, and the Bank of Ashland, Kentucky, were thrown out on Saturday. The Hudson River and the Farmer's Bank, the two Banks of Hudson, have both suspended. Their bills are fully secured, and the business men of the place have generally agreed to take them at par. The cashier of the Exchange Bank of Lockport, which was reported to have suspended, says that is solvent and in regular operation.

The City Banks, though hard pressed, have no thought of suspending; and Chicago has resolved with Boston to stand by us. The Bank Commissioners of Connecticut are said to be vigilant and faithful. The Auditor of Virginia says that notes of all the State Banks will be taken in payment for revenue. The fact that the Reading Railroad's notes have gone to protest will not tend to strengthen confidence in railroad securities. The Long Dock Company and the Cumberland Coal Company followed suit on Saturday. The Erie paid everything due, and five-sixths of the subscription to her $600,000 loan is already made up. In Boston, there was a little change for the better. In Philadelphia, the depression amounts almost to a paralysis. We hear of workmen being thrown out of employment all over the country.

Bank Suspension in St. Paul.

[From the St. Paul Times, Oct. 3.]

Every person in the Territory who knows the well-known firm of Marshall & Co., bankers of this city, will regret to learn of their assignment, which event transpired yesterday morning.—This Banking House had the confidence of every body, and had it not been for the unfortunate suspension of a Banking establishment in St. Louis, with which the Messrs. Marshall had business connections, they would have been able to withstand the pressure, to the great satisfaction of their numerous friends and patrons.—The firm, we are assured, not only from the card which follows, but from other sources, will pay every dollar of their indebtedness, but it will require time to close up their affairs.

BANK FAILURE IN ST. LOUIS.—Private advices from St. Louis announce the suspension of the banking house of James H. Lucas & Co., of St Louis. The result is quite unexpected here. The house was supposed to be one of the strongest of the kind in the country. Mr. Lucas, the senior partner, is an old citizen of St. Louis, and immensely wealthy. We have heard his real estate in St. Louis alone, estimated at five millions of dollars. It was only a little while ago that he made the munificent donation of $100,000 towards the establishment of an Astronomical Observatory in his own city. The failure of this house cannot fail to affect still more disastrously the business men of St. Louis.—Chicago Press of yesterday.

SAD ACCIDENT.—We learn that yesterday afternoon a sad accident occurred at Edgerton, in this county, from the caving in of a well, by which a man the name of John Parr was buried and smothered to death. The well had been dug to considerable depth and curbed with brick as it was dug. Yesterday, upon Mr. Parr's descending, the whole structure fell upon him.—Efforts were immediately made to extricate him, but up to 11 o'clock last night had not succeeded. His groans were heard about two hours after the accident, but with such weight upon him it would be impossible for him to live a great length of time.—Janesville Standard, Oct. 7.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 7.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Nancy McCormick, drunk and disorderly, fined $5.

Edward Doland, vagrancy, discharged to Superintendent of Poor.

James Holehan, disorderly, fined $10.

Michael Foley, " " $5.

Gunther Peterson, charged with assault and battery, found not guilty.

Anna Engel, assault and battery, fined $5.

CIRCUIT COURT, Oct. 7.

HON. ARTHUR M'ARTHUR, PRESIDING.

State of Wisconsin vs. John Belton, indicted for having counterfeit money and attempting to pass same. Verdict of jury guilty. Sentence deferred.

State of Wisconsin vs. Geo. Hill, indicted for larceny in a dwelling. Trial proceeding.

WISCONSIN PEARS.—At the Annual Exhibition of our Milwaukee Horticultural Society, at Young's Hall, Tuesday evening, we saw a display of Pears that could not, we think, be excelled anywhere in the U. S. They were raised by Col. Crocker, at his place on Spring street hill, and included, among other choice varieties, the Duchesse D'Angouleme, the Louise bonne de Jersey, the White Doyenne, the Bartlett, the Swan's Orange, the Stevens Genesee, and the St. Ghislain. Many of these pears were of mammoth proportions, weighing a pound apiece, and as beautiful to to the eye, as they were grateful to the palate. It has cost no little time, labor and money to raise this fine fruit, but Col. CROCKER has persevered against all discouragement, until his efforts have been crowned with gratifying success.

NEW BUILDINGS.—The fine block of brick stores now being erected by Mr. WALDO, at the corner of East Water and Chicago streets, are beginning to show their fine proportions, and with good weather will now be pushed forward rapidly to completion. The elevation shows five five story stores, very much after the plan of the stores lately erected by Mr. QUENTIN, a block above on the other side of the street; and there is besides, a store fronting on Chicago street. The block will be a great improvement to that part of the city.

EXPRESSLY FOR THE TIMES.—The following from the New York Evening Post, (not by Goldsmith,) will do to laugh over, but is not so very pleasant, we opine, in business:

When merchants fondly trust to paper,
And find too late that banks betray,
What art can help them through the scrape, or Suggest the means wherewith to pay?

The only way to stop each croaker,
And pay the banks to whom they't nt,
To bring repentance to the broker.
And wring his bosom, is—"to cent !"

$10 SEWING MACHINES.—We omitted, in our notice of noticeable articles at the State Fair, to mention the Sewing Machine, exhibited by Mr. H G. WILSON, for which he holds the right for this city. It was not, we think, displayed in the Fine Arts' Hall, before Wednesday noon, when we left. We learn that it was operated successfully during the succeeding days, running at the rate of 800 stitches a minute, and never losing a stitch, attracting crowds of people to witness its working, and bore off the premium.

MR. WEINBERG'S CONCERT.—This entertainment is announced for Tuesday evening of next week. The programme will be found in our advertising columns. We commend it to the attention of our music-loving readers, and invoke their aid in securing for Mr. WEINBERG a greeting commensurate with his artistic merits.

EXTENSIVE STOVE ESTABLISHMENT.—We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. SENNETT, BARR & Co., extensive dealers in stoves. Their store is a perfect wilderness of iron, and the styles of stoves, of approved pattern, are legion in number and made of good material.

A WRECK.—One of the few miserable old shells of buildings left on East Water St. opposite NAZRO's store, fell to pieces yesterday. There is another near it in a critical condition. We hope that another year will witness some fine buildings filling up the gap.

☞ The steamer Sam Ward is expected here to-day to take the place of the Arctic for the remainder of the season, between this port and Two Rivers. The necessary repairs of the Arctic cannot be completed in time for her to be in the water again this season for any length of time.

PARK HOUSE.—Dr. Tilton has returned to the Massasoit House, Chicago, where may be obtained Old Dr. James wonderful and celebrated extract of Cannibis Indica.—His son-in-law, Dr. Thomas Tilton, will supply you with either, personally or by Express. This is a sure and speedy cure of the worst cases of consumption, bronchitis, asthma, nervous debility, coughs, colds and sore throats.—We know this to be a fact. Try it and live.

P S.—By addressing Dr. Tilton a note through the Chicago Post Office, inclosing four stamps, (12 cents), a recipe will be sent in return, free of charge, to any part of the Union.

☞ Many kinds of Tonics are advertised that we are assured will strengthen the hair and prevent its falling out, but none that have been and does all that it promises, save that of Professor O. J. Wood's. This we know is good from having tried it, and witnessed in several cases its truly beneficial effects. Dr. Wood was kind enough to send us a couple of bottles, and after finding that it prevented our hair from falling out, we presented a bottle to a friend who had been bald for at least thirty years; it has restored his hair perfectly, and it is now as thick and glossy as when he was twenty five. This we say in all sincerity and we shall be glad to have our friends try it for themselves, as we believe it is just what it professes to be. For real worth, Wood's Hair Restorative lives is undoubtedly the best preparation now in use for restoring hair on bald heads, changing gray hairs to their original color, and for a cosmetic or cure for pimples, it is fast taking the place of other preparations.—No toilet now-a-days is complete without it.

☞ If any one should ask us what in our opinion, arrived at by an impartial test, was the best and most honest compound remedy for preserving and beautifying the hair and restoring gray hairs to its original color, and the life to the bald headed, we should without hesitation say Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative. See advertisement in another column.—Louisville Journal.—Sold by all Druggists.

Mayor Cross and the Usurper Barstow—The Defenders of the Ballot Boxes.

We have already shown from the Legislative record of Mr. JAMES B. CROSS, that as a member of the Assembly he sustained all those peculiar measures which rendered the Barstow administration so justly obnoxious to the people of this State. By these votes Mr. CROSS proved, what no one who knows his political history has ever pretended to question, his entire identification with that wing of the Democratic party. But he gave still stronger evidence of his personal devotion to the Chief of the tribe, when the usurper BARSTOW undertook to defy the Supreme Court, to override the will of the people, and to keep by force the office which he had obtained by FRAUD. Then it was that Mr. CROSS, holding at the time the office of Mayor of this City, attended the meeting called at Young's Hall to sustain BARSTOW in his meditated treason, and introduced the following resolutions:

Resolved, further, That we recognize William A. Barstow to be the Governor of Wisconsin, constitutionally and legally elected and chosen, and that the Supreme Court have no power or authority to investigate the acts of the Board of State Canvassers, to interfere with the Executive, either in his election or in his acts, or to declare who is or who is not the Executive, but that the Supreme Court are bound by the Constitution and the laws, in common with the people, to recognize the Executive in his acts under the certificate of the Board.

Resolved, further, That the action of the Supreme Court, in assuming jurisdiction over the Executive, is a violation of the Constitution and the laws; an assault upon the form of government under which we live; upon the independence of the Executive Department and the integrity of our institutions; and that such action is a bold and high handed usurpation of judicial power but demonstrating conclusively that corruption and pandering to political partisan feeling is to be found in an elective judiciary, as well as elsewhere.

Resolved, further, That we tender our warmest thanks, and are under deep obligations to William A. Barstow, the Governor of the State of Wisconsin, for the noble and dignified stand he has taken, in asserting the independence of the Executive Department entrusted to him by the people, and in defending the Constitution and laws, against the treasonable and treacherous assaults of a partizan Court, aiming at political power, and insidiously grasping at political dominion, and while thus vindicating, in his own person, the rights of the people of this State, we will sustain him with our hearts, our voices, our votes and our strength.

Here was a crime against the People of this whole State for which Mr. CROSS has never yet atoned, or apologized. By this act he made himself a party to BARSTOW'S usurpation and an accessory after the fact to the flagrant and infamous frauds upon the ballot-box which were relied upon to defeat the will of the People. When Mr. CROSS introduced the above resolutions these frauds had all been proved to the entire satisfaction, not only of the Supreme Court, but of every honest man in the State. Upon this proof the Court had given its judgment, ousting the usurper BARSTOW, and instating the rightful claimant, BASHFORD. Against this decree of the Supreme Court, vindicating the purity of the ballot-box, carrying out the will of the People and righting a monstrous wrong, BARSTOW and the more reckless of his adherents prepared to rebel. They made ready, openly, and defiantly, for CIVIL WAR. And JAMES B. CROSS, as Mayor of this city, aided and abetted their treasonable plans!

And now Mr. CROSS, with this high crime fresh upon his hands, asks the suffrages of the very people whose will he defied, and appeals to that ballot box which he attempted to defraud. In a Republican Government, deriving its strength and its power directly from the people, there can be imagined no more heinous and unpardonable an offence than that, which, striking at the purity of the ballot box, poisons the very fountain head of all authority, and plunges the land into anarchy and discord. It is to the ballot box that we look for the redress of all grievances, and the reform of all abuses. It is to the ballot box that every appeal is made to settle disputed questions of politics and government. To the verdict of the ballot box every good citizen cheerfully and unhesitatingly submits. He, therefore, who seeks to procure a fraudulent verdict; who undertakes to tamper with the ballot box; who wickedly dares to violate its integrity; and who boldly attempts, by false counts and forged returns, to change the actual result, and thus defeat the will of the people, is an enemy to them, a traitor to the State and a most dangerous foe to Republican institutions. Of such a crime, WILLIAM A. BARSTOW, as principal, and JAMES B. CROSS, as accessory, have been arraigned and convicted before the people of this State. BARSTOW has already received his sentence, and it only remains to pronounce judgment upon his associate and accomplice, Cross. Let the electors of Wisconsin, whose rights he trampled upon; whose will he sought to override; whose authority, as embodied in the Supreme Court, he set at defiance; whose voice, as expressed through the ballot box, he threatened to resist; let them remember these high crimes against the purity of the Elective Franchise; against the rights and privileges of the People; against the majesty of the Law and against the peace and dignity of the State, and, on the third day of November next, reward JAMES B. CROSS according to his deserts.

To the People of Milwaukee.

The electors of the city of Milwaukee are requested to remember that while Mayor CROSS is away on important business for the city, he is a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people of Wisconsin; and that, necessarily, the canvass goes forward without his supervision or participation. The business that has called him from home, is so important, that, if he is not successful, a loss to the city will follow of perhaps $75,000.

What a contrast the conduct of Mr. CROSS presents to that of Mr. RANDALL. The latter is traversing the State and canvassing the city; a begging for votes! Which of the two will you prefer for Governor? Will you take the supple demagogue, or the sterling, faithful man of business? Mr. CROSS ought to have every vote in Milwaukee.—News, of yesterday.

We did not intend to say much about the sudden and convenient business call which takes Mayor CROSS East, but since the News seeks to turn it to political account it becomes a fair subject for comment. As Mr. CROSS does not care to face the people in the canvass, the News conceives it to be highly improper that Judge RANDALL should meet with, and talk to them. "Circumstances alter cases." Only last fall the News and all its yoke-fellows of the Shum-Democracy were out in full cry against Mr. BILLINGHURST, because, as they said, he was afraid to meet his competitor, Mr. HOBART, on the stump, and canvass the district in his company, "a begging for votes." Now, however, that their candidate for Governor has run away, to escape the burden and responsibility of the fight, while the Republican nominee for Governor is making the round of the State and addressing the people upon the political issues of the day, the News scouts him as "a supple demagogue," and accuses him of "begging for votes."

But what takes Mayor CROSS East, just at this particular juncture? Why, says the News, to raise money to complete the Harbor and finish the School Houses, and thus prevent the loss to the City of $75,000. The times, certainly, are not propitious for borrowing money. Our city bonds are selling in New York at a fearful discount. And yet it is on city bonds that the Mayor proposes to raise the requiren means. To do so, he will have to pay a heavy shave which the TAX PAYER must eventually shoulder. Certainly the Mayor might have chosen a better season to go East on this business. It seems more than probable that other motives, besides city affairs, caused this sudden start. We hear it, indeed, very confidently asserted, that Mr. CROSS, not feeling over sanguine of success, nor disposed to "pay too dear for the whistle," was anxious to get out of reach of the hungry leeches, who, seeing in the News and other party organs, that he was wealthy and President of a Bank, and supposing, of course, that he would "come down handsomely," were daily growing more and more pressing and exorbitant in their demands for "material aid." We do not know whether Mr. CROSS' journey to the East will save the city $75,000, but we are very sure that it will save the Mayor a handsome sum. And in this fact, as well as in the disinclination to meet Judge RANDALL before the People, we find a motive for the Mayor's quitting the field, in the heat of the fight—even at the risk of setting a bad example to his followers—quite as powerful as the alleged "business" excuse of the News.

MR. SCHURZ'S QUALIFICATIONS.—The American demands of us "what are Mr. SCHURZ'S business qualifications apart from his European Patriotism." This "Patriotism," at which the American is so fond of sneering, is a qualification in itself, since love of country and devotion to principle are always commendable qualities in public men. Mr. SCHURZ has, besides, other requisites for the office to which the People of Wisconsin intend to elect him. He is a man of fine talents, of thorough education, of unblemished character, of a natural turn for public life, familiar with the politics and history of this country, and an enthusiastic admirer, of our Republican institutions. Although he has been but "five years" in the United States—a period that the American thinks altogether too brief to qualify him for office—we venture to say that there are few men in this city, native or foreign-born, who better understand the theory and practice of our State and Federal Governments. And if the American disputes our evidence in the matter, we refer it to any well-informed German in our city, whether Democrat or Republican. They all speak well of Mr. SCHURZ and bear willing witness to his eminent merits.

RHODE ISLAND BANKS.—The bank note circulation of Rhode Island is so secured under the individual-liability clause, that the property of the stockholder is held for the last dollar, without reference to the amount of stock held by the subscriber.

The Injured Innocent.

The American of yesterday occupies a column in a labored effort to prove its political consistency, immaculate honesty and unswerving devotion to truth, and fires a volley of invectives at the Sentinel for wickedly attempting to injure its fair fame and weaken its commanding influence. It feels especially aggrieved that we should charge it with being a Know-Nothing organ, and selling out to the BARSTOW-CROSS clique. As to the first charge, the proof is to be found in the daily columns of the American and its illiberal and unfounded attacks upon Mr. SCHURZ. The editor of the American may not be connected with the K. N. organization, but these attacks breathe the true K. N. spirit. Touching the second charge, the American indignantly replies:

> We acting consistently as a Democratic journalist support the regular Democratic nomination, this is distorted into a charge of having done so by corrupt means. This is simply false.

It is unfortunate for this defence that the American took four weeks to consider about supporting "the regular Democratic nominations," and during all that period was understood to be up "for Cowes and a market." After this protracted sitting on the "anxious seat," the American suddenly discovered, one bright morning, that "truth will prevail," and it straightway ran up the "regular Democratic ticket," and plunged into the thickest of the fight. In view of all the circumstances, it was impossible to avoid the belief that something besides "truth" had "prevailed," and the Madison Patriot, we observe, pretends to tell exactly what and how much it was.

So much for the charges of which the American complains. We have no wish to deal harshly with that paper, and indeed are disposed to let it down easy; but when it indulges, day by day, in bitter and defamatory attacks upon the Republican cause and candidates—having been itself so recently a zealous Republican journal—and then, from being an anti-BARSTOW organ veered round so suddenly to the opposite quarter, it cannot expect that such frequent and facile changes of position will escape the comments of the press, or fail to excite the suspicions of the public.

The Harbor.—Mayor Cross gone East.

We learn that the city works at the Harbor have been or that they must soon be discontinued for want of funds. Work on the School Houses has also been suspended for the same reason. These facts all our citizens will regret. Unless money be immediately raised the improvements at the Harbor will have to be left exposed to the storms of the winter, and will be damaged to considerable, to the amount, it is possible, of fifty thousand dollars. And if the work on the School Houses is stopped, resumed, they will be useless during the coming season.

The raising in this city of the required sum, for these exigencies, is out of the question. It may, perhaps, be had in New York.—News of yesterday.

The bank of "funds" is a prevalent complaint about these times, and very difficult of cure. Nor does the financial condition of our city warrant any flattering hopes that the Mayor will succeed in borrowing more money on our corporate credit. With prudence and economy, this contingency might have been avoided. But our City Government has been wasteful and prodigal in its expenditures, utterly regardless of the increasing burdens which it imposed upon the people, and careless of the injury inflicted upon our credit.

Who knows how matters now stand? What the amount of city indebtedness—what the sum total of outstanding bonds—what the nature and value of the securities which the city holds for the loan of these bonds—what the income and expenditure of last year—what the impending tax for the next? We venture to say that a full and particular statement of all these matters would arouse the tax-payers and property owners of this city to the conviction that our affairs, for the present past, have been most grossly and wantonly mismanaged, and that nothing but radical Reform and rigid economy will save the city from bankruptcy.

Condemned out of its own Mouth.

The American of yesterday charges us with "falsehood" in saying that it intimated that Mr. SCHURZ was no better than a Rebel, or a Traitor. The charge requires no other answer than the following extract from the American's own columns:

> It does strike us these very words were applied to WASHINGTON, the illustrious Statesman, the Soldier and the Christian, and to use such phrases towards Mr. ——— can't spell his name—the name is French in Obenise—is rather highfalutin, with a spice of snobbishness in it.

Now as WASHINGTON, the defender of his country, never ran away from it, and Mr. S. is said to have shown himself strong "in the service, in the cause of Liberty and Father Land," we ask how we came to see him in Janesville at the fair? A patriot would fight and die at home defending Father Land; a rebel or a traitor would flee his country and her outraged laws.

We cannot undertake to say what the American means, when it used this language in regard to Mr. SCHURZ, but the words themselves admit of but one construction, and that we gave them. No doubt the American, upon a "sober, second thought," would be glad to withdraw them, and so, we think, it should, with a frank apology to Mr. SCHURZ for the uncalled-for and ungenerous imputation.

Down on "the Patriots."

Not content with denouncing Mr. SCHURZ, the American of yesterday proceeds to demolish a host of European worthies, who have signalized themselves in the different contests for Free Principles and Equal Rights, which have agitated various parts of the continent within the past 20 years. It says:

> We have heard much of KOSSUTH, GEORGEY, MEZZINI, BLANC, KINKEL, LEDRU ROLLIN, LOUIS BLANC, &c., men of all nations who may be "Patriots," but Heaven preserve us from seeing such men elevated to the highest offices of State.

A very natural prayer in our K. N. neighbor. But why KOSSUTH, MAZZINI, KINKEL, SCHURZ, or any other distinguished foreigners, who choose to make America their home, should be "ruled out" because they had been "Patriots," we do not precisely understand. Those who have been true to the cause of Right and Freedom in their Native Land, where the advocacy of that cause involved loss of property and peril of life, may surely be relied upon to make good and loyal citizens in this, the country of their adoption.

SHOT THE DESERTERS!—The Madison Argus, the central organ of "the Forty," devotes a leader to the extermination of the "sore heads" in the Democratic ranks, and thus calls upon the faithful to drum out of the camp all who do not believe in "BARSTOW, CROSS and SCHOOL LANDS."

> Under these circumstances we are confident that the true Democracy of Wisconsin will promptly brand those men who, repudiating all time honored party usages, set themselves up against the regular nominees in the field. Who, at this crisis, is not with us, is against us, and those who oppose the will of a majority expressed in regular convention, are sore heads, giving direct comfort and aid to our bitterest foes. As such they are without the pale of party; indeed, nine times out of ten, they are demagogues ready to change their creed for a "consideration"—willing to run over the whole gamut of politics, from rampant radicalism to incipient conservatism, always, however, contriving to be on the winning side. It is a good thing to get rid of them at any cost.

When the votes come to be counted, this fall, we rather think that the Argus will repent its bitter invectives against the Reform Democrats. They intend to make themselves felt in November; office-seekers and office-holders to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAVES IN GRANT COUNTY.—The Grant County Herald rebukes our incredulity about the existance of large caves in that region of the State and thus certifies to the fact:

> We assure the Sentinel that the account of the Cave in Hickory Grove, recently appearing in our paper, was intended for truth. There are several Caves in Grant County, three of which have been explored 200 or more feet. The Millville Cave, noticed in our paper last spring, is the most interesting one known in the county.
>
> Enough said, friend Herald. We "cave."

Arrival of the News from British India.

Gen. Havelock's Success over the Rebels.

INCIDENTS OF THE REVOLT.

CHOLERA AMONG HIS TROOPS.

After stamping out the disaffection among the Mahomedan population of Lower Bengal, the mutiny at Dinapore, and the disarming of native regiments at other points, the London Times of the 18th ult. gives the following interesting summary of the marches and victories of Gen. Havelock:

Passing up the river, and to the battle fields on which the hopes of all have just been concentrated, we regret to find that Gen. Havelock has found it necessary to pause in his triumphant career. A day's march from Lucknow, encumbered with sick and wounded and heavy guns captured from the enemy, he found his little force attacked by cholera. But for the mysterious character of the disorder, which disdains ordinary rules, and selects its victims by an inscrutable caprice, it might be supposed the natural result of that exhaustion and collapse which are to be expected after much exposure, toil and excitement. However that may be, Gen. Havelock had deemed it advisable to resume his steps to Cawnpore, nurse his sick and wounded and wait for reinforcements. This is now, as we trust, a question of days. When the Bentinck left Calcutta, troops were rapidly arriving, and there would be every day less difficulty in passing them up the Ganges as far as the means of conveyance could be had. The delay at Cawnpore is all the less important as an unexpected success is reported from Agra, where a mutinous contingent has been dispersed, and no doubt is entertained as to the present safety of Lucknow. Along the river, however, there was uneasiness, apprehended outbreaks, and detected conspiracies. Besides, Dinapore, Patna and Moorshedabad, Benares and other towns are mentioned.—But with the Ganges open to us, and troops arriving every day, there does not seem real cause for alarm in this quarter. India having absorbed the body of the Chinese Expedition, has now drawn in the head, and Lord Elgin has followed his followers to Calcutta, bringing all his staff and a welcome body of marines and other soldiers. His Lordship may possibly consider that as in the absence of the forces he had do nothing, he had better go where there is work to be done, or at least something to be seen; and at this juncture of unsurpassed difficulty and importance its dimly said and friendly counsel may be found of real value.

* * * * *

In little more than a single week, therefore, these 1,500 British soldiers, with their 800 Sikh comrades, had marched 120 miles along the valley of the Ganges, during the heats of July, had fought four fierce actions, and driven 15,000 men from position after position, and had found themselves masters of Cawnpore, the first object of the exhibition. Yet even after these exertions, the interval of repose allowed was but trifling. On the 12th, the troops had reached Bithoor—Nena Sahib's stronghold—received that British vengeance should reach the villain through all the defences he could devise, but his heart, or his army had already failed him; he had evacuated his palace, and nothing could be done beyond consigning the whole place to the flames. Still the work of the relieving force was but half accomplished, and after fighting from Allahabad to Cawnpore it remained to fight from Cawnpore to Lucknow. This second part of the expedition has been, not, indeed, less glorious, but less fortunate than the first. On the 21st, Gen. Havelock announces in a dispatch that he is free to cross the Ganges, and already on the 20th we find him, with a most seasonable reinforcement received through Gen. Neill, twenty miles advanced on his new route, after having fought another successful battle and taken fifteen guns. In this position—with Lucknow only about 80 miles ahead—his army seems to have encountered that stern scourge of Indian armies—more terrible than a human foe—an outbreak of cholera. We know by sad experience with what fatality this dreadful disease lastens on an army, fatigued by long marches, worn out by great excitement, and exposed at once to fierce heat, and the exhalations of a partly flooded country. It was under similar circumstances, indeed, some forty years ago, that cholera, with whose fatal course we have now become so sadly familiar, first broke out. But never, even in war, fertile in unlooked for reverses, was there one which so plainly rebuked all human calculation as this. A general with an army, victorious beyond precedent marching to assured success and the relief of a long beleaguered fortress, within one march of their object, have been struck by the fatal pestilence, and by our last accounts, Havelock and the remains of his gallant band, encumbered by their sick comrades, were painfully retracing their steps to Cawnpore, by the route on which they had so advanced only a few days before, full of hope and confidence in as holy a cause as ever led men to battle.

Such were the forces against which General Havelock and his troops were to advance, under a July sun, and in the very heart of Hindostan.

On the 12th of July—after extraordinary exertions had been made to overtake the Fusiliers ahead—the whole column came up with the enemy at Futtepore, a town about half way between Allahabad and Cawnpore, where the rebels presented themselves in a good position with twelve guns. In about three hours the entire force was driven in headlong rout from the field and every gun taken. This success enabled the British commander to augment the efficiency of his own artillery. He had left Allahabad with light six pounders only, but he now availed himself of the captured cannon, and after a halt of a single day so followed on the track of Nena Sahib with his own nine pounders. That morning, the 14th, the column marched sixteen miles. On the next day it renewed its advance, and after five miles of its march had been accomplished found the enemy again in sight, strongly posted and protected by a second position against the risks of a final defeat. At each of these points they were attacked in succession, and from each they were driven with the bayonet, the whole of their artillery being again left on the field. On the day following, 16th, without any repose, our troops continued their advance, and now descried their antagonists collected for a final stand in front of Cawnpore. Their resources had enabled them once more to replace their lost guns with others, and two batteries, well served, presented a formidable appearance to the advancing column.

So strong, indeed, was their position, that it was deemed advisable to turn it, and a short but painful movement was executed for the purpose. Hitherto the march of the force had lain along the Great Trunk Road leading from Calcutta to Delhi; but this causeway was now quitted by a detachment of the column, which in the very heat of the day—it was 1.30 P. M.—toiled through a heavy march to get on the enemy's flank. "Many men," we are told, "dropped from the effects of the sun," but the task was at length accomplished, and then came the battle and the victory. It was a stubborn fight, for the Sepoys occupied a succession of villages, supplying them with exactly such positions as they hold best, but no resistance was of any avail against the little army pressing on to vengeance. Some of the expressions used by eye-witnesses recall exactly the descriptions given of the British at the Alma and the Mamelon. "I never," says one writer, "saw anything so fine. The men (of the 78th) went on with sloped arms like a wall; till within 100 yards not a shot was fired. At the word 'Charge,' they broke just like an eager pack of hounds, and the village was taken in an instant." This engagement—making the fourth fought in five days—opened the road to Cawnpore, which was promptly occupied, though too late, alas! for the rescue of its unhappy garrison.

State Fair Receipts.

We learn from D. J. Powers, Esq., the Treasurer of the State Agricultural Society, that the receipts of the late Fair amounted to about $4,500. Receipts at last year's Fair, $8,000, showing a large balance in favor of this year. This looks well for the progress of the Society, when all things are taken into consideration. The Fair last year was held at Milwaukee, where the population is much larger than Janesville, where it was recently held. Times last year were comparatively easy—this year tight; and the weather last year was favorable, while this year there was almost a continual rain during the principal days of the exhibition. Notwithstanding all these drawbacks, the receipts of this year exceed those of last by about $1,500, which excess would have been doubled, without a doubt, had the weather last week been favorable. This shows that the right spirit prevails among the farmers, and that the officers of the Society have been active and efficient. Very much of this success is attributable to the never-tiring exertions of D. J. Powers, Esq., the able and practical acting Secretary and Treasurer of the Society. He is deeply interested, personally, in the cause of agriculture, and knows how to excite an interest in that great subject among his brethren, and having had the Wisconsin Farmer under his control, has been enabled to do it with eminent success. We rejoice in this success. Prosperity among the farmers will make all business pro-perous.—Madison Journal.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

The Troubles in the Three Great Money Markets of the World.

From the London News, Sept. 16.

The announcement of a bank and railroad panic in the United States, is peculiarly unwelcome at the present moment, when so depressing an influence is exercised upon commercial and monetary affairs in this country by the attempted revolution in India, and when still greater gloom reigns in France. It is a most unusual circumstance for the three greatest money markets in the world to be thus simultaneously stricken. In England, however, the fact is merely the quiet of caution—in France it results from financial exhaustion, consequent upon a previously inflated speculation. In America, the situation presents many features analogous to that in France, but with this difference—that the rottenness is nearer the surface of things After making allowance for the comparatively low cost of the American railways, this very comparison is sufficient to induce an apprehension that a young community like the U. S., whose monied capacity is yet far below that of England or France, has sown the seeds of the present difficulty through undue haste in railroad construction.

CIRCULAR TO LAND OFFICERS.—The following circular has been issued by the Commissioners of the General Land Office:

By the joint resolution of Congress, approved March 2, 1857, valid pre-emption claims on the 15th and 36th sections heretofore reserved for schools in the Territories of Minesota, Kansas and Nebraska, will be recognized where the settlement has been or may be made prior to the survey.

1. In cases where the approved plat of survey has not yet been returned the declaratory statement must be entitled within three months after the receipt of such approval plat at the district office.

2. Where the plat is now in the Register's of fice, the declaration must be filed within three months from the first publication of this circular in your land district.

A failure to comply with this requirement will work a forfeiture of the claim.

ANOTHER BEAR STORY.—We have learned a few of the particulars of a bear fight on Pigeon Creek, which we lay before our readers without any dressing up. Messrs Hall and Still, of upper Trempealeau, went out on an elk hunt last week, and while beating about came across a black bear. They fired several shots at it without much effect, and the bear commenced to retreat. Mr. Hall made a short circuit about to head off the bear, and coming in front of him fired, but his gun hung fire, and the bear made a rush for him. Mr. H. clubbed his gun, but the bear struck it from his hands and sprang upon him, and seizing him by the thigh mangled his leg in a bad manner. Mr. H.'s companion came up and discharged his gun at the bear, but this did not drive him off, when he cut with his knife and soon despatched him. Mr. Hall was badly bitten, but will probably soon recover without loss of limb.—Jackson Co. Banner.

COLT'S REVOLVERS.—At a recent trial of small arms by the Board of Ordnance, Washington, U. S., Colt's, Sharp's and other rifles, Colt beat the lot. At 100, 300, 400, and 500 yards, the aver age penetration of Colt's rifle was through 14 one inch seasoned white pine boards, Sharp's 9; at a recent trial of Colt's navy revolver, by a teacher of musketry, at Aldershot, the weapon was found to throw a ball over the measured distance of 600 yards, and to do effective work at 400. The accounts we have of the effectiveness of Colt' arm, as a weapon of defence, lead us to believe that it is the arm par excellence for cavalry and artillery —especially for all officers.—[Woolwich (Eng.) Journal.

AUCTION SALE OF LOTS in the 6th Ward, bright & sunbeam, adjoining shemans's. This beautiful addition has for a long time been the object of speculators, but now is the time for those who desire to build and improve—The desirableness which we feel in the extreme value of this property, and the knowledge we have of the demand which exists for its lots, induces us even at this time to offer it at Public Auction.

Over one half of the ward is perfectly familiar with the location of these lots. They have hitherto been kept out of market by the owner, notwithstanding the superior advantages which they offer for residences, but the pressure of the demand for them, and the desire to improve the value of the residue of the property, induces him to offer a portion of them on terms which will induce others to come forward to purchase, so that both of and themselves may benefit by the increased value will be given to by the improvements. The size of the lots, 50x132, is of itself a great boon desirable to persons building, as it affords a short distance between houses and saves expensive fences. Will repay the labor bestowed on them. The sale will take place at our office on Michigan street, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of the 20th inst.
